REASON:

Max is in his 12th year of membership at KODTC and has been an enthusiastic and active member supporting the club since he became a member. In 2010 he took over the role of Treasurer and remains in this position until present day. He also chairs the Finance Sub-committee and is responsible for maintaining stock that the club sells. He has been a committee member of KODTC since approximately 2008.

He was voted most helpful club member of the year twice during recent years at the club.

He started as a trainee instructor in 2009 and continues to be an instructor at the club presently. He is available as a trainer as a priority over other personal activities. He is always available to give members advice on training their dogs, sometime at the expense of training his own dogs. He has also been available to give phone advice when members have problems during holiday periods, and has visited members at home to assist when he believes the problem cannot be solved over the phone.

In 2006 he competed in his first Flyball comp with Indie and has been competing every year since with Indie or more latterly, his other dogs Bear and Lenny. He has helped train and encourages new members of the club who are showing an interest in Flyball in the hope that they will become involved and strengthen our club teams. Max has been instrumental in gaining sponsorship for our Flyball and NADAC competitions as well as for fun days.

In his role outside the club as dog and puppy trainer he actively encourages dog and puppy owners to join our club, for the benefit of the dog / puppy, owner and our club.

Max is always willing to help set up the grounds for any competitions or fun days even if he is not competing.

Max is a well respected and valued member of the KODTC family and is well worth nomination for Life Membership.
